News Release

Victim of Traffic Accident Identified

April 3, 2010

The Harrisonburg Police Department has identified the pedestrian, who was struck in last night's accident.

Officers responded to the 100 block of Reservoir Street, around 9:40 p.m. last night, for the report of a pedestrian being struck by a vehicle. The Toyota Camry was traveling southbound on Reservoir Street.

Sabino Nolasco, 51, of Harrisonburg was pronounced dead at the scene.

Neither alcohol nor speed appear to be factors for the driver of this accident.

Investigators are still looking into the specifics of this incident and no charges have been placed.
